Use of Personal Information

Information collected by FNF is used for three main purposes:

- To provide products and services to you or one or more third party service providers (collectively, “Third Parties”) who are obtaining services on your behalf or in connection with a transaction involving you.
- To improve our products and services that we perform for you or for Third Parties.
- To communicate with you and to inform you about FNF’s, FNF’s affiliates and third parties’ products and services.

When Information Is Disclosed By FNF

We may provide your Personal Information (excluding information we receive from consumer or other credit reporting agencies) to various individuals and companies, as permitted by law, without obtaining your prior authorization. Such laws do not allow consumers to restrict these disclosures. Disclosures may include, without limitation, the following:

- To agents, brokers, representatives, or others to provide you with services you have requested, and to enable us to detect or prevent criminal activity, fraud, material misrepresentation, or nondisclosure in connection with an insurance transaction;
- To third-party contractors or service providers who provide services or perform marketing services or other functions on our behalf;
- To law enforcement or other governmental authority in connection with an investigation, or civil or criminal subpoenas or court orders; and/or
- To lenders, lien holders, judgment creditors, or other parties claiming an encumbrance or an interest in title whose claim or interest must be determined, settled, paid or released prior to a title or escrow closing.

In addition to the other times when we might disclose information about you, we might also disclose information when required by law or in the good-faith belief that such disclosure is necessary to: (1) comply with a legal process or applicable laws; (2) enforce this Privacy Notice; (3) respond to claims that any materials, documents, images, graphics, logos, designs, audio, video and any other information provided by you violates the rights of third parties; or (4) protect the rights, property or personal safety of FNF, its users or the public.

We maintain reasonable safeguards to keep the Personal Information that is disclosed to us secure. We provide Personal Information and non-Personal Information to our subsidiaries, affiliated companies, and other businesses or persons for the purposes of processing such information on our behalf and promoting the services of our trusted business partners, some or all of which may store your information on servers outside of the United States. We require that these parties agree to process such information in compliance with our Privacy Notice or in a similar, industry-standard manner, and we use reasonable efforts to limit their use of such information and to use other appropriate confidentiality and security measures. The use of your information by one of our trusted business partners may be subject to that party's own Privacy Notice. We do not, however, disclose information we collect from consumer or credit reporting agencies with our affiliates or others without your consent, in conformity with applicable law, unless such disclosure is otherwise permitted by law.

We also reserve the right to disclose Personal Information and/or non-Personal Information to take precautions against liability, investigate and defend against any third-party claims or allegations, assist government enforcement agencies, protect the security or integrity of the Website, and protect the rights, property, or personal safety of FNF, our users or others.

We reserve the right to transfer your Personal Information, as well as any other information, in connection with the sale or other disposition of all or part of the FNF business and/or assets. We also cannot make any representations regarding the use or transfer of your Personal Information or other information that we may have in the event of our bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, receivership or an assignment for the benefit of creditors, and you expressly agree and consent to the use and/or transfer of your Personal Information or other information in connection with a sale or transfer of some or all of our assets in any of the above described proceedings. Furthermore, we cannot and will not be responsible for any breach of security by any third parties or for any actions of any third parties that receive any of the information that is disclosed to us.

Information From Children

We do not collect Personal Information from any person that we know to be under the age of thirteen (13). Specifically, the Website is not intended or designed to attract children under the age of thirteen (13). You affirm that you are either more than 18 years of age, or an emancipated minor, or possess legal parental or guardian consent, and are fully able and competent to enter into the terms, conditions, obligations, affirmations, representations, and warranties set forth in this Privacy Notice, and to abide by and comply with this Privacy Notice. In any case, you affirm that you are over the age of 13, as THE WEBSITE IS NOT INTENDED FOR CHILDREN UNDER 13 THAT ARE UNACCOMPANIED BY HIS OR HER PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN.

Parents should be aware that FNF's Privacy Notice will govern our use of Personal Information, but also that information that is voluntarily given by children – or others – in email exchanges, bulletin boards or the like may be used by other parties to generate unsolicited communications. FNF encourages all parents to instruct their children in the safe and responsible use of their Personal Information while using the Internet.

Privacy Outside the Website

The Website may contain various links to other websites, including links to various third party service providers. FNF is not and cannot be responsible for the privacy practices or the content of any of those other websites. Other than under agreements with certain reputable organizations and companies, and except for third party service providers whose services either we use or you voluntarily elect to utilize, we do not share any of the Personal Information that you provide to us with any of the websites to which the Website links, although we may share aggregate, non-Personal Information with those other third parties. Please check with those websites in order to determine their privacy policies and your rights under them.

European Union Users

If you are a citizen of the European Union, please note that we may transfer your Personal Information outside the European Union for use for any of the purposes described in this Privacy Notice. By providing FNF with your Personal Information, you consent to both our collection and such transfer of your Personal Information in accordance with this Privacy Notice.

Choices With Your Personal Information

Whether you submit Personal Information to FNF is entirely up to you. You may decide not to submit Personal Information, in which case FNF may not be able to provide certain services or products to you.

You may choose to prevent FNF from disclosing or using your Personal Information under certain circumstances ("opt out"). You may opt out of any disclosure or use of your Personal Information for purposes that are incompatible with the purpose(s) for which it was originally collected or for which you subsequently gave authorization by notifying us by one of the methods at the end of this Privacy Notice. Furthermore, even where your Personal Information is to be disclosed and used in accordance with the stated purposes in this Privacy Notice, you may elect to opt out of such disclosure to and use by a third party that is not acting as an agent of FNF. As described above, there are some uses from which you cannot opt-out.

Please note that opting out of the disclosure and use of your Personal Information as a prospective employee may prevent you from being hired as an employee by FNF to the extent that provision of your Personal Information is required to apply for an open position.

If FNF collects Personal Information from you, such information will not be disclosed or used by FNF for purposes that are incompatible with the purpose(s) for which it was originally collected or for which you subsequently gave authorization unless you affirmatively consent to such disclosure and use.

You may opt out of online behavioral advertising by following the instructions set forth above under the above section "Additional Ways That Information Is Collected Through the Website," subsection "Third Party Opt Out."

We ask individuals to identify themselves and the information requested to be accessed and amended before processing such requests, and we may decline to process requests in limited circumstances as permitted by applicable privacy legislation.

Your California Privacy Rights

Under California's "Shine the Light" law, California residents who provide certain personally identifiable information in connection with obtaining products or services for personal, family or household use are entitled to request and obtain from us once a calendar year information about the customer information we shared, if any, with other businesses for their own direct marketing uses. If applicable, this information would include the categories of customer information and the names and addresses of those businesses with which we shared customer information for the immediately prior calendar year (e.g., requests made in 2015 will receive information regarding 2014 sharing activities).

To obtain this information on behalf of FNF, please send an email message to privacy@fnf.com with "Request for California Privacy Information" in the subject line and in the body of your message. We will provide the requested information to you at your email address in response.

Please be aware that not all information sharing is covered by the "Shine the Light" requirements and only information on covered sharing will be included in our response.

Additionally, because we may collect your Personal Information from time to time, California's Online Privacy Protection Act requires us to disclose how we respond to "do not track" requests and other similar mechanisms. Currently, our policy is that we do not recognize "do not track" requests from Internet browsers and similar devices.

FNF Compliance with California Online Privacy Protection Act

For some websites which FNF or one of its companies owns, such as the Customer CareNet ("CCN"), FNF is acting as a third party service provider to a mortgage loan servicer. In those instances, we may collect certain information on behalf of that mortgage loan servicer for fulfilling a service to that mortgage loan servicer. For example, you may access CCN to complete a transaction with your mortgage loan servicer. During this transaction, the information which we may collect on behalf of the mortgage loan servicer is as follows:

- First and Last Name
- Property Address
- User Name
- Password
- Loan Number
- Social Security Number - masked upon entry
- Email Address
- Three Security Questions and Answers
- IP Address

The information you submit is then transferred to your mortgage loan servicer by way of CCN.

The mortgage loan servicer is responsible for taking action or making changes to any consumer information submitted through this website. For example, if you believe that your payment or user information is incorrect, you must contact your mortgage loan servicer.

CCN does not share consumer information with third parties, other than those with which the mortgage loan servicer has contracted to interface with the CCN application.

All sections of the FNF Privacy Notice apply to your interaction with CCN, except for the sections titled Choices with Your Personal Information and Access and Correction. If you have questions regarding the choices you have with regard to your personal information or how to access or correct your personal information, you should contact your mortgage loan servicer.

ATTACHMENT 2. LETTER OF EXPLANATION

The project proposes to develop the Pacifica Quarry site in a combination of a clustered commercial/residential village adjacent to the Rockaway Beach commercial district (the Quarry Village), a hotel/conference venue, a wetland and hillside open space, and a creekside park with recreational trails.

Within Quarry Village, the development program calls for up to 70,000 square feet of local-serving commercial development (up to 35,000 square feet of retail and restaurant use and up to 35,000 square feet of office above); 181 residential units (with up to 20% affordable units) and 25 live-work residential units. The mixed use commercial-residential village would have a clustered development footprint, and would build on the walkable street pattern and coastal orientation of the Rockaway Area with a neighborhood-serving commercial center focused on a beachfront plaza. This small center would include cafes, shops, and a second story of office over retail, in order to add critical mass to enliven the Rockaway Beach neighborhood. The architecture for Quarry Village will be in keeping with Pacifica's existing character in terms of color and massing, with a contemporary look. The commercial buildings will have a welcoming, open appearance and will address the street with open storefronts, ample glazing on the ground floor, display windows, simple awnings, appropriate signage, and in many cases dining that spills out into the sidewalk to enliven the street edge. The residential apartments will also be in keeping with Pacifica's existing character, with a clean, contemporary look to the buildings. Building colors will take clues from the site's natural landscape, including colors from Quarry limestone, beach sand, beach driftwood, plantings along lowland wetlands and Calera Creek, and native plants on the bluffs.

A coastal hotel of up to 188 rooms would fit within the contours of the regraded quarry bowl, with a restaurant and conferencing facility (up to 13,000 square feet) sized to serve meetings for the hotel's guestroom capacity. To the north of the hotel will be 12 bungalows (up to 2,500 square feet in size). The hotel and bungalows' architectural character have a contemporary look, but will follow in the traditions set out by Sea Ranch and other California coastal architecture that seek to fit in with the natural surroundings, and complement, rather than compete, with the area's natural beauty. The structures will have a natural integration from indoor to outdoor, with ample glazing, porches, and roll up or roll out doors. The building color scheme will also follow the site's natural colors, much like the commercial and residential apartments.

Grading on the site is meant to respond to the site's geotechnical issues and create safe slopes or other conditions that conform to surrounding topography. Most of the existing topography will be preserved, while at the same time unstable materials left by old quarry fill will be regraded to provide a safe condition.

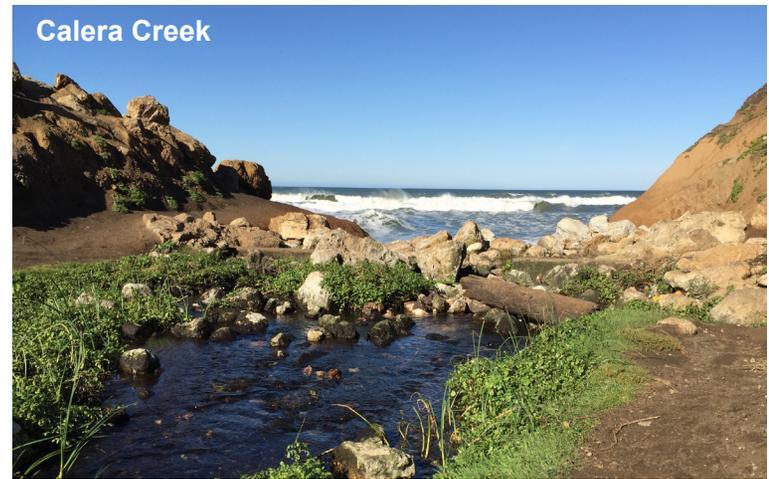

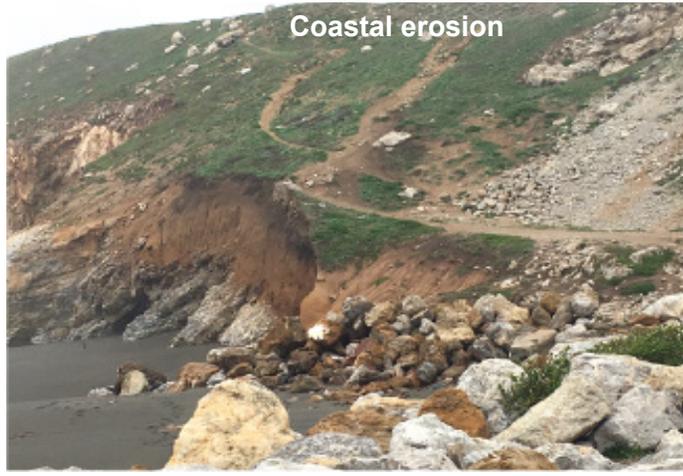

A new entry will be added to access Quarry Village from Hwy 1. This 'Quarry Road' will utilize the existing (dead end) turn off from Hwy 1 just to the northeast of San Marlo Way. The access road up to the bungalows will essentially follow the old quarry access road, which is currently an unpaved trail. There will also be a private road easement that parallels Hwy 1. This limited access frontage road will provide access and a bypass for Hwy 1 in an emergency. Off street parking will be provided in all areas, associated with each land use (commercial, residential, hotel/conference, and bungalows).

The project designates at least 75% of the property as permanently protected open space, including setbacks of at least 100 feet from Calera Creek (measured from the top of the bank) and abundant open space for active and passive recreational uses. These uses include upgraded and safer trails, wetlands, a creekside park, an amphitheater and meadow within the quarry bowl, scenic overlooks, and preserved hillsides. A creekside park separates live-work units from popular community walking routes along Calera Creek. The project's main access road, Quarry Road, will provide a new connection from Hwy 1 just to the NE of San Marlo Way. The project will also provide an emergency vehicle access route parallel to Highway 1.

The project will improve public access and establish permanent open space at a popular destination along the coast. The project site is a missing piece of larger coastal open space and trails systems, including Rockaway State Beach to the south and Mori Point to the north. New, publicly accessible trails would be constructed that connect Rockaway Beach to Mori Point. Grading for the development would be designed to minimize erosion and restore wetlands.

For further information on the proposed structures, see Development Plan Sheet 3.0 Land Use Plan and Sheets 6.0-6.1 Building Siting and Configuration. For architectural styles and materials see Development Plan Sheet 6.5 General Concepts for Building Colors, and Sheets 6.6-6.10 Building Materials and Themes. For further grading information see Development Plan Sheet 4.2 Grading and Drainage Plan. For further information on roads, driveways, parking, and circulation see Development Plan Sheet 1.0 Circulation Plan. For further information on fences/walls see Development Plan Sheet 4.2 Grading and Drainage Plan, indicating retaining walls and heights. Hours of operation, number of employees, and delivery schedules will be determined as project development moves forward.
