Driver Arrested for DUI after Collision

Pacifica, CA- On November 29, 2016 at approximately 1:00 AM, an officer from the Pacifica Police Department was on routine patrol in the area of Clarendon Road and Oceana Boulevard when she observed a traffic collision which just occurred. The officer noticed crash debris, two severely damaged vehicles and two motorcycles that were all involved in the collision.

Personnel from North County Fire Authority responded to the scene. Personnel from American Medical Response were summoned and treated one of the drivers. That driver was transported to a local trauma center for examination. Both of the motorcycle riders complained of pain, but refused medical treatment on scene. During the investigation, it was determined the driver at fault for the collision was under the influence of alcohol and he was subsequently arrested for driving under the influence.

The arrested driver was identified as Liam Purcell, a 23 year-old male from Nazareth, PA. Purcell was medically cleared at a local hospital, then booked at the San Mateo County Jail in Redwood City for: 23153 (a) CVC (DUI accident causing bodily injury).
