As a county commissioner, a wife, and mother I believe Pacifica needs to be a place where working professionals can raise their families for generations to come.

While Pacifica is rich in tradition, too many residents feel left out. I'm running for City Council because I believe Pacifica needs to be an inclusive place where families, educators, and servicepeople thrive. I want to ensure that future generations can return to the same place that raised them and provided them with a sense of community.

I have strong track record. I've owned several businesses and I've served my community through Rotary, Junior League and as a YMCA Board Member. I've reduced barriers to healthcare through my work with the San Mateo County Healthcare for the (HCH/FH) Co-Applicant Board. Additionally, I've participated in creating public policies as a member of the San Francisco DA's Advisory Group.

I will be your partner in making Pacifica work for all of us by:

- Putting families first.
- Addressing our homeless problem.
- Reducing small business restrictions.
- Finding housing solutions for teachers, veterans, and public servants.

Join me at electadonica.com, and let's ensure the future of Pacifica works for our families.
