

News from Representative Speier

January 23, 2018

Dear Friends,

What were the defining moments of the first year of the Trump presidency for you? The birth of the Women's March movement, the firing of FBI Director James Comey, the travel ban, the withdrawal from the Paris climate agreement, the fiery rhetoric with Kim Jong-un, Kellyanne Conway's claim of alternative facts, the white-supremacist rally in Charlottesville, or the fire and fury over Steve Bannon?

Please join me for A Conversation about America: One Year of Trump this Saturday, January 27, 2018 at 10 a.m. at the Ingrid B. Lacy Middle School in Pacifica.

More than 200 constituents filled the Little Brown Church in Pacifica on January 25, 2017.

On January 25, 2017, I held my first of eleven town halls since Donald Trump became president. In that standing-room-only town hall at the Little Brown Church in Pacifica, constituents expressed their shock, dismay and fear for what was to come. This Saturday, I am returning to Pacifica to hear from you again. We will take a look back at what has transpired over the past year and discuss the coming year and its challenges. I encourage you to ask any questions about the recent government shutdown, the Russia investigations, the #MeToo movement, Trump's war on the press, or anything else that's on your mind.
