POLICE CHIEF'S ADVISORY PANEL

PURPOSE/SCOPE

The primary purpose of the Chief's Advisory Panel is to provide a forum with key stakeholders regarding law enforcement policies and law enforcement response to issues within the community. The Chief's Advisory Panel is not a review Panel of specific police actions, whether internal or external, but a forum for discussions concerning community concerns and leveraging the experience of persons outside of policing to benefit the Department and the community. The Chief's Advisory Panel is comprised of a diverse cross-section of community members representative of the City of Pacifica. The collective thoughts and opinions of all members drives the Panel and reflect holistic views that serve as catalysts for the integration of community viewpoints into police department planning/strategies.

The Chief's Advisory Panel consists of no more than 10 members who represent a range of interests and experiences. Members are from diverse backgrounds, including business, education, non-profits, public relations, faith community, and more.

PANEL MEMBER ROLES (includes but are not limited to):

- Attend meetings held at the Police Department, monthly on the first Tuesday from 6PM-7PM.
- Act as a sounding Panel for the Chief of Police regarding community needs and concerns, as well as community response to proposed police programs, priorities, and policies.
- Apprise the Chief of Police directly of the community's need for police services.
- Assist in educating the community at large about the function and role of the Pacifica Police Department.
- Open discussion regarding emergent trends in law enforcement that affect the City of Pacifica.
- The Panel will have no input or discussion regarding specific employee personnel issues.
- This Panel will act solely in an advisory capacity to the Chief of Police and will not be involved in Department decision making at any level.

- The Panel is expected to provide input on topics the Chief of Police deems appropriate and timely. Each member of the Panel will be expected to contribute.
- The panel is a non-political body which does not take positions on candidates for elected office or City policy decisions.
- Panel members must be willing to engage in respectful, robust discussions, bringing active listening and good intentions to the group.

MEMBER SELECTION CRITERIA

- Candidates for positions on the Chief's Advisory Panel are selected by a team formed by the City Manager, who select members to serve on the advisory Panel for their professionalism, integrity, experiences, and commitment to our community. The Chief will lead the Chief's Advisory Panel meetings.
- Members serve a renewable three-year term. All members serve at the discretion of the Chief of Police or his designee.
- Members are required to be a resident or business owner within the City of Pacifica.

MEMBER TERM LIMITS

Terms are limited to three years to allow for greater participation by all interested parties. A two-year extension for sitting Panel members will be considered on an individual basis at the pleasure of the Chief of Police. A Panel member may be excused from participation:

- At the discretion of the Chief of Police, with the approval of the City Manager, when it is deemed necessary for the benefit of the Panel as a whole.
- In the case of those members who, without being excused by the Chief of Police, vacate their position by failing to attend 2/3 of the meetings within any 12-month period.
