Pacifica needs a collaborative leader who listens and then offers solutions; a leader who sets a course, then follows through. As your Councilmember, my priorities will be to protect homes and businesses, improve our infrastructure, and strengthen our economic base to enhance the quality of life for all Pacificans.

Twenty-five years ago, my husband and I chose this community to put down roots and raise our family. We purchased a home, but like most residents, our investment in the life of this town has gone far beyond that. For over 18 years, I have raised funds for music education in our underfunded public schools and have served the needs of Pacifica's youth as a school district employee for over 12 years. I have contributed to our community as president of Linda Mar Parent Teacher Organization, Pacifica Library Foundation, California School Employees Association Chapter 128, and Pacifica Lions Club. I have also served as a board member of Terra Nova Band Boosters and the Pacifica Education Foundation.

My experience as a leader in Pacifica has prepared me to take the next step. As a Pacifica City Councilmember, I will work for you!
